King Midas' Funeral: Happy Hour at a Tomb
U.S. Team Finds Clues to Ancient Feasts

BY JOHN W. MCRAE

Anchornists of the Didyma of the ruins of ancient buildings and artifacts. They describe the site of the monumental building as it is now being published today in the Journal of Archaeology. The Anchornists, led by Dr. Robert McFarlane and colleagues, are currently conducting excavations at the site. The Anchornists have identified several structures, including a temple, a palace, and a library. The temple is constructed of large stones and has a large number of inscriptions written in ancient Greek. The palace is surrounded by walls and has a series of rooms, including a large hall and smaller rooms. The library has a large number of clay tablets and papyrus scrolls. These发现的结构表明该区域在古希腊时期是一个非常重要的地点。

Q. Who was our only bachelor president?

Learn more TONIGHT on C-SPAN's American Presidents Series

TODAY'S FEATURED PRESIDENTS:

Millard Fillmore
1 pm ET/10 am PT
Franklin Pierce
5 pm ET/12 am PT
James Buchanan
9 pm ET/6 am PT
Abraham Lincoln
12 am ET/7 am PT

Check local TV listings for C-SPAN's channel

American Presidents

TV's Most Extensive Series on the Presidents

Air December 20th–30th

Created by Cable. Offered as a Public Service.
www.americanpresidents.org

Retired Agent
Is Accused Of Conspiring With Mobsters

BY CARY NEILSON

A retired federal agent is accused of conspiring with mobsters to influence the outcome of a pending civil lawsuit. The agent, who had worked for the FBI for over 20 years, is accused of using his influence to influence the court's decision in favor of the plaintiffs. The FBI has launched an investigation into the matter and has placed the agent on administrative leave.

A Dinner in Memory of the King

ENTREE

Beef Bourguignon or Lamb

Served with a choice of sides

BEVERAGE

Beverage

Menu Page 10 IC

(A was four-fifths of a pound)

This skeleton, found in a Tombaunched 100 years ago, was the last of the King Midas of Lycia. Research on the skeleton also revealed the truth of an old legend to describe the fearful各大聚会的达摩。”

For dinner, theHellenic Club of Laramie located at 400 Main Street, served served with a choice of sides

by

James Buchanan

The Midwest Regional Council on American History

1200 16th Street, N.W.

Washington, D.C. 20036

The Midwest Regional Council on American History is a non-profit organization dedicated to preserving and promoting the history of the Midwest. The Council was founded in 1993 and has over 500 members. The Council sponsors a variety of events, including lectures, workshops, and tours. The Council also produces a newsletter and publishes a quarterly journal.

The Midwest Regional Council on American History is a non-profit organization dedicated to preserving and promoting the history of the Midwest. The Council was founded in 1993 and has over 500 members. The Council sponsors a variety of events, including lectures, workshops, and tours. The Council also produces a newsletter and publishes a quarterly journal.

The Midwest Regional Council on American History is a non-profit organization dedicated to preserving and promoting the history of the Midwest. The Council was founded in 1993 and has over 500 members. The Council sponsors a variety of events, including lectures, workshops, and tours. The Council also produces a newsletter and publishes a quarterly journal.